

NCMA Chesapeake Bay Chapter Presents:

Certified Federal Contracts Manager Federal Module Exam Study Group

Get Certified!

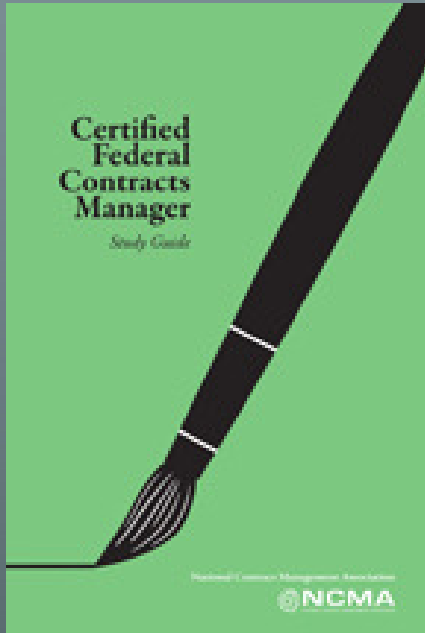

- A Certified Federal Contracts Manager (CFCM) certification validates your education, training, experience and your knowledge of the Federal Acquisition Regulation.
- Awarded to candidates who meet rigorous standards, including experience, education, training, and knowledge.
- NCMA certifications are competency-based, legally defensible, and are based on psychometrically sound objective examination of knowledge.
- A study group is a proven, effective way of preparing for and passing the exam.
- The group study atmosphere helps all members hold each other accountable for success.
- The group study method provides structure, keeps members on track with a study session syllabus, and trains members to succeed at timed, multiple-choice exams (each session will replicate exam day on a smaller scale for each FAR Subchapter).
- Weekly exams to help you prepare.

- Study Sessions begin Monday, March 7th 4:30pm – 6:15pm
- St. Mary's County Library Lexington Park location Meeting Room B
- Weekly Monday sessions for at least 6 weeks.
- We will review applications during the first session. Bring all application materials with you (download from the website at ncmahq.org).
- RSVP Friday, March 4 to Steph Dunlap @ dunlap.steph@gmail.com (appreciated but not required)
